A. Course Description
Apply principles of microeconomics to real world business issues and public policies. I will use real world examples and cases as much as possible in order to enhance your understanding of course materials.

B. Textbook (Suggested):
- “Managerial Economics, Fourth edition” written by Ivan PNG, published by Blackwell Publishers (HKUST online access)
- Supplementary readings will be posted on the Course Website

C. Course Format / Teaching Approach:
This course is delivered through lectures and tutorials.
Students attend two 80-minute lectures per week. Tutorials will be arranged when needed. Tutorial times and topics will be announced in advance during lectures and on Course Website. Please note that lectures and tutorials are not “substitutes” but “complements” to each other. Do attend both lectures and tutorials for your own benefit.

D. Course Website
All course materials and announcements will be posted on the Course Website (CANVAS). You should visit the Course Website daily to check announcement, obtain class material and verify your personal grading record.

E. Office Hours and Appointments:
If you have a course or work conflict with the scheduled time for my office hours, please do not hesitate to contact me by email (eckwsiu@ust.hk) and we will find another time to meet.

F. Examinations and Grades:
Problem sets:
Problem sets will be assigned for each major topics (will be posted on the Course Website). You have to turn in your own problem sets before the announced deadline through the Course Website. Please note that NO late submission will be accepted. Understanding the problems will substantially assist you in learning the course materials. I strongly suggest that you form small study groups to work on the problems. Full solution will be posted on the Course Website. If you have any questions about the problem sets, please seek help from me or TA.

Writing Assignment (short article):
Suggest an interesting question about something they have personally observed and then use basic economic principles to answer it in no more than 1000 words. Deadline: TBA

Midterm Exams:
There will be one midterm exam. The midterm exam will cover lecture materials, problem sets and assigned reading (if any).

For students who are absent from the midterm exam with my approval, your weighting of midterm exam will be transferred to the final exam.
