

Hong Kong University of Science and Technology
School of Business and Management
Department of Finance

FINA 533 – Investment and Finance in China
Spring, 2003

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This 8-week, 28-hour seminar offers a practical, “real world” understanding of foreign investment in China and how financing is used for trade and investment in China. The topics covered will include: 1) China’s banking system and the International Trust and Investment Corporations (ITICs); 2) foreign direct investment using actual cases; 3) trade and trade finance; 4) infrastructure finance; and 5) China’s stockmarkets and the process of listing a PRC company on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong.

II. ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR

Dr. Laurence Franklin

Adjunct Professor of Finance, Department of Finance

Adjunct Professor of Law, Department of Accounting

Larry Franklin has been doing business in China since 1981, as a lawyer, commercial banker, investment banker, China advisor and equity investor. He has completed more than 55 investments and financings in China, raising over US$5 billion in funds for China.

Most recently, Larry worked for Hutchison Whampoa (China) Ltd., the China subsidiary of Hutchison Whampoa Ltd., as General Manager-Investments, supervising a US$ 500 million Venture Capital Fund seeking direct investments in Greater China, and as Head Legal Counsel. Previously, he held the position of Deputy Managing Director for AIA Capital Corp. (AIACC), the flagship investment banking arm in Asia of the American International Group (AIG). Larry was actively involved in sourcing and structuring investments in the Asia region for AIACC’s US$110 million Venture Capital Fund, as well as for AIG’s $1.1 billion Infrastructure Fund.

From 1981-1989, Larry worked for The First National Bank of Chicago, first as Asia Pacific Regional Counsel (1981-1985), and then as China Country Head (1985-1989).

Larry holds MBA and Juris Doctor degrees from Stanford University, and is a Certified Public Accountant. In addition to his MBA teaching at HKUST, he has taught previously in the MBA programs at Stanford, MIT, Chicago, Darden, USC, UCLA, Tsinghua in Beijing and Manchester in the U.K. He has taught in the Executive MBA programs at MIT, Kellogg (Northwestern)-HKUST and China-Europe International Business School (CEIBS) in Shanghai and Beijing.

Larry’s publications include Establishing a Holding Company in China, a 30-page Chapter in Obtaining PRC Approvals, 300 pps., published by Euromoney’s Asia Law & Practice, January, 2000.

III. TOPICS FOR COURSE MEETINGS

Tuesday, February 4	China's Banking System and the ITICs
Tuesday, February 11	Foreign Investment in China Part I
Tuesday, February 18	Foreign Investment in China Part II
Tuesday, February 25	Trade and Trade Finance
Tuesday, March 4	Infrastructure Finance
Tuesday, March 11	China's Stockmarkets and going IPO
Tuesday, March 18	Current Investment Topics
Tuesday, March 25	Final Examination

IV. READINGS

There is no required text. There will be required Reading Materials for each session available in advance. In addition, a number of interesting texts and other Recommended reading materials will be put on reserve in the Library. For each session, there will be one or more caselets (short-form cases) to prepare. Please note that in the first session, it important that each student come fully prepared to discuss the Fujian Bond caselet.

Preparation for class is essential if you want to benefit fully from the class session, which will tend to move swiftly and be highly interactive with and among the students.

You are expected to be a well-informed reader of the business press on China. At a minimum, this would include daily readings on China business in The Asian Wall Street Journal and The South China Morning Post. Highly recommended periodicals include China Business Review, Far Eastern Economic Review, The Economist, Fortune and Business Week. We will spend 15 minutes at the beginning of each session discussing current China business items in the media.

V. OFFICE HOURS

Before class, after class and by appointment. The best way to reach me is by email as shown below.

VI. GRADING

Your grade is based on your participation in class (30%) and the final examination (70%). As there are only 8 sessions, it is recommended you attend and participate in all classes. The final exam will be essay rather than numerical problem solving, and will be designed to test your common sense, your ingenuity and your ability to apply the substance of the course to new fact situations.

VII. CONTACT INFORMATION

Telephone: 2358-7688

Facsimile: 2358-1749

Email: lcfran@ust.hk

Classroom: 4th Floor, Wheelock House
Pedder Street, Central

Office: Room 2456, HKUST

Office Hours: By Appointment

