

Frontiers in Information Systems Practices:

A Dialogue with Business Leaders

From Accenture, E&Y, HKSTPC and McKinsey

April 9, 2014 3:00 - 9:00 PM

Lecture Theatre, Institute for Advanced Study (IAS), HKUST

Organized by the Department of ISOM, HKUST Business School and ISACA Student Group

Frontiers in Information Systems Practices

A Dialogue with Business Leaders

09-APR-2014

Venue

Session 1-3: Lecture Theatre, Institute for Advanced Study

Session 4: Dinner at Chinese Restaurant, G/F Atrium, HKUST

Registration link:

<http://www.bm.ust.hk/isom/isaudit/>

Session 1: 3:00 - 4:00pm

“Every Business is a Digital Business”

Jouni Hakanen, Managing Director, Accenture

Jouni is Managing Director at Accenture Strategy Consulting and Lead Technology Strategy in Asia Pacific. He also leads Cloud Computing in Greater China and has wide industry experience covering telecommunications and high tech, pulp & paper and resource-based process industries, pharmaceutical industry and retail trade and consumer products.

Session 2: 4:30 - 5:30pm

“IS Audit and Security Professionals in the Workspace”

Gary Yuen, Director, Ernst & Young Advisory Services

Gary has extensive experiences in providing IT auditing and security services in various industry segments including financial services, government, ICT, etc. He led IT auditing engagements in support of information security assessment, regulatory compliance review, business process review, etc. His professional qualifications include CPA, CISA, and CISM.

Session 3: 5:30 - 6:30pm

“What are the latest topics among CEO and CIO circles?”

Ronald Fung, Junior Partner, McKinsey

Ronald is the core leader of Greater China FIG Practice and Business Technology Consulting (BTO) at McKinsey & Company. He has advised clients in multiple IT topics, especially on large scale transformations, in a wide range of geographical locations, including Europe, Slovakia, Nigeria, India and Saudi Arabia. Ronald received his M.Sc. in Social Policy and Planning, Criminology from LSE and B.E. in Mechanical Engineering from Imperial College.

Session 4: 6:30 - 9:00pm

Dinner and Open Forum

“Technology entrepreneurship in Hong Kong: Challenges and Opportunities”

Allen Ma, Chief Executive Officer, Hong Kong Science and Technology Parks Corporation

Allen leads and manages Hong Kong Science Park, InnoCentre and three Industrial Estates that are entities within HKSTPC. He has held senior executive positions with a number of multinational corporations primarily in the information and communications technology sector over the past 30 years. Allen believes technology plays a key role in fuelling Hong Kong’s economic transformation, and hence is committed to providing world class infrastructure, technical and support services so as to increase the competitiveness of the city as a regional hub for science and technology innovation.