Synopsis of the talk:

Gone are the days when employees spent their entire career at a single company. Nowadays, they are constantly searching for their next career move. When employers go to the office these days, it is not surprising to find a resignation letter on the desk. In the old days, employers counter-offered with higher wages and the employees stayed, but now employees want more than cash. As a seasoned general manager in a global IT company, Mr. Leung will share his views on how to retain top talent in today's competitive world.
